

LABOR CONFERENCE THREATENS TO SPLIT ON 48-HOUR WEEK

Workers' Groups Line Up
With Gompers in Behalf of Eight-Hour Day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Threats to withdraw from the International Labor Conference were heard to-day from groups of labor delegates, who lined up with Samuel Gompers in his fight to have referred to a committee the question of approving the 48-hour week as against the eight-hour day. Mr. Gompers yesterday told the conference that it is lining up to defeat the eight-hour day and endorse the 48-hour week. This, he charged, would deprive workers of the Saturday half holiday already gained in many countries.

Mr. Gompers is being opposed by a combination of Government and employer delegates. This combination gave every indication of favoring the 48-hour week as opposed to the 8-hour day. It voted to approve the report of the organization committee, which according to Gompers, practically shelved the 8-hour day.

3 AMERICANS IN WRECK.

Report 18 Killed and 60 Injured in French Train Crash.

GENEVA, Nov. 6.—Three Americans, Major William Heford, of the Red Cross and Mrs. Helen Goettli, a sister of Mary Garden, the opera singer, are among the passengers who have arrived here after escaping from the railroad wreck upon the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean Road Monday night.

These passengers, who report eighteen dead and sixty wounded in the wreck, were thirty-six hours enroute reaching Geneva.

WEARMOOR Overcoats for Small Boys

From 3 to 10 years

$16<sup>50</sup> to $35<sup>00</sup>

LONGER - WEARING!
STRONGER - WEARING!

All boys' overcoats cost more today than they used to. But WEARMOOR overcoats wear longer, so it is as broad as it is long, for higher prices are offset by an increased period of wear. Finer fabrics, finer workmanship, inside and out, and finer finish, that is the sum and substance of the Wearmoor story.

Given Away a valuable Brochure

When Thomas A. Edison decided to make a phonograph which would reproduce music that could not be distinguished from the original, he said it could not be done. But it has been done—although it cost $3,000,000 to do it.

Edison and Music

This beautifully illustrated brochure tells all about it.

EACH letter of "Ru-stella" symbolizes some attribute of this new and wonderful phonograph: "R" for resonance, "U" for Universality, "S" for strength, "T" for thoroughness and now "E" for Expressiveness. The "master-made-horn" and the distinctive sound box of the "Ru-stella" phonograph, co-ordinating with the silent-working mechanism, make it possible to preserve all of the original Expressiveness of the artist. It will not be said of the "Ru-stella," as is often said of other machines, that an artist "has a wonderful voice on the stage but his records are so disappointing." Compare "Ru-stella" and other phonographs for expressiveness!

Model D, Illustrated, $89.50

is finished in mahogany, golden oak or fumed oak and is fitted with the trumpet violin-shaped "Ru-stella" horn, a two-spring Red Star motor, which will play three 12-inch records with one winding; a tone regulator and a universal tone arm which plays all records. All metal parts are heavily nickel plated. The twelve-inch turntable is covered with green felt. There are six horizontal shelves for albums and three needle cups. "Ru-stella" is guaranteed and kept in repair for two years—the strongest guarantee ever given a phonograph—and is conceded to be the lowest priced good phonograph in the market. Others approaching it in quality sell for 33 1/3% to 40% more. Height 46 inches, width 19 inches, depth 20 1/4 inches. Linked with "Ru-stella's" Expressiveness is its Latitude—but watch for the next talk on "Ru-stella."

Other "Ru-stella" phonographs at $42.50, $129.00, $159.00 and $184.00

While other leading phonographs have advanced in price, "Ru-stella" has not advanced.

Touche of gold in Chapeaux La Marquise?
$8.50

In this chic and shining group one may find hats of all types—a tiny turban of gold brocade set with a single black pom-pom, hats with brims of gold mesh, hats with crowns of gold metal cloth veiled in black tulle. The gold hat is pre-eminently the dress hat of the season, and these models, interpreting every whim of the mode, possess at the same time an individuality of style and a high quality of material which stamp them immediately as Chapeaux la Marquise.

Fourth group up to $14.74, reduced to $10.74.

Appreciating the fact that even the very young have definite ideas of becoming clothes, and realizing that a Christmas season will be all the more Christmasy if one may be gowned becomingly, we are offering this wide range of dresses at a great reduction, so that the junior Miss, and growing sister who is hard to fit, may be able to choose one of the very prettiest for her holiday festivities.

Many of these models are of fine French serge, of all wool storm serge or plaid worsted. All are beautifully tailored and finished.

There are little frocks trimmed with hand embroidery, and frocks with girlish, silk sashes, and still other frocks with braid or button trimming. One frock, for instance, is made of fine French serge in dark navy, has a cunning coat heavily embroidered with silk braid; a vest of tricolette and sash of serge complete this very attractive costume, which may serve for a spring suit as well as a winter dress.
